

Native American Accomplishments with President Trump

Native Americans, tribal citizens, rural and urban, are uniting to re-elect President Donald J. Trump by sharing the historic gains made in American Indian and Alaska Native communities as a result of the Trump Administration. Re-electing President Trump will ensure better economic opportunities, safer communities, and a healthy environment for Indian Country and all Tribal Nations for generations to come. American Indians and Alaska Natives have an ally in the White House who wants to bring more jobs, expand school choice, increase homeownership, and increase wages to Make America Great Again! NEW! President Trump's Promise to Native Americans:

PRESIDENT TRUMP'S PROMISE TO NATIVE AMERICANS:

Ensure safer communities by supporting law enforcement, serving victims, continuing to prioritize the issue of missing and murdered Native Americans through the Operation Lady Justice Task Force, and combating illegal drugs and supporting those with addiction.

Instill policies to add 51,000 Native American-owned businesses and up to 196,000 new jobs for Tribal communities, including growing the pipeline for Tribal entrepreneurship through opportunities for Federal contracting.

Improve infrastructure and connectivity, including funding for modern broadband e-Connectivity and nurturing agricultural growth in Indian Country.

Promote Tribal economic self-determination by streamlining regulations governing natural resources, energy, and infrastructure development in Indian Country.

Increase Federal investment in Tribal Colleges and Universities.

Respect Native American culture by prioritizing the repatriation of Native American remains and important cultural artifacts, supporting Native language education, and nurturing Native American artisan small businesses.

Provide all Native American children access to high-quality education options through scholarships, the creation of new Tribally operated charter schools, and improving the quality of education at Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) operated and funded schools.

Host National Tribal Leader Convening and establish a National Week of Consultation.

Improve care delivery in the Indian Health Service (IHS) and increase access to quality healthcare for Native Americans, including ensuring that COVID-19 vaccines and therapeutics are prioritized for Tribal communities.

Honor the tradition of military service by Native Americans and ensure veterans and service members get the healthcare they need and deserve.

President Trump is committed to honoring the heritage of America's first inhabitants and partnering with Native Americans to build a brighter future. whitehouse.gov
